DAY12
Misunderstood

■ The Secret Frontispiece

Truth is, the story for Day 12 was originally meant to be a completely different story. But, because of reasons, I binned the entire thing during the naming (rough draft).

The secret Day 12 cover that I binned is the art piece above.

I always draw the frontispiece first during the naming stage, so this art piece got thrown into limbo. It's a bit of a waste, so I'm releasing it here. As for the story, maybe I'll reuse it in the distant future. At that time, I'll draw a new cover page.
